

SECTION 22. VIOLATION AND PENALTY

1. Except as set forth in subsection 2 below, any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance or who shall fail to comply therewith or with any of the requirements therefore, or who shall erect or alter any building, or who shall commence to erect or alter any building or structure in violation of any detailed statement or plan submitted or approved thereunder, shall for each and every violation or noncompliance be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00. Each day such violation shall be permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense. The owner of that building, structure or premises or part thereof where anything in violation of this ordinance shall be placed or shall exist, and any architect, builder, contractor, agent or corporation employed in connection therewith who may have assisted in the commission of any such violation, shall be guilty of a separate offense and, upon conviction, shall be subject to the penalties stated above.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance or who shall fail to comply with any of the requirements thereof, or who shall erect or alter or commence to erect or alter any building, or structure, in violation of any section pertaining to a sexually oriented business as regulated pursuant to Chapter 243 of the Texas Local Government Code, shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor as defined in the Texas Penal Code. Each day any violation of this ordinance shall continue shall constitute a separate offense.
